

I am a normal, hard working American. I take the train to work each day. I tutor once a week. I pay my taxes, save my money, support our troops and I've been a victim of crime. I am opposed to all goverment access to all citizen communication--phone, mail, internet. We just don't need that level of enforcement to create a safe America. Also, that level of infrastructure could be used against America by a tyrant.